

QUESTION:

Candidate No _____

(Sample OSSAQ)

	Question	Marks
	A 50 year old man was sting by a bee while working in the field one hour ago. He fainted soon after the sting and woke up several minutes later, feeling generalized itchy and red, dizzy and shortness of breathe. Ambulance was called by his wife and he was sent to A&E Department. Triage vitals: BP 80/40 mm Hg, Pulse 110/min Temp 37°C RR 24/min, SpO2 92% on 6L/min O2 P/E : weak pulse & wheeze over both lung fields
Q1	Name the single most clinically indicated drug of choice for this patient (0.5 mark)
A
Q2	What other 5 treatment strategies (other than oxygen supplement and the drug answered in Q1) you would order for this patient? (2.5 marks)
A
Q3	The patient does not respond well with your above treatment. Further history shows patient had hypertension and is on regular Metoprolol (β-blocker). Name one drug which is particularly indicated for anaphylaxis in this situation. (1 mark)
A
Q4	Name 2 clinical benefits of using your drug answered in Q3? (1 mark)
A
A
	Total Score	5